

NEC Corporation of Malaysia Appoints New Managing Director

KUALA LUMPUR, 21 November 2011 – NEC Corporation of Malaysia Sdn. Bhd. announced today the appointment of Andrew Lee Kok Wah, as its new Managing Director. Mr Lee will replace Daisaku Takeuchi, who has been its Managing Director since June 2007.

With more than 20 years of experience in the local IT industry, Mr Lee brings with him a wealth of experience in the IT business. Prior to this appointment, Mr Lee was the General Manager and Director of the Board under its Solution & Distribution Business Unit in Jardine OneSolution Sdn Bhd, where he was responsible for leading the solutions and distributions business operations of the company in Malaysia.

Prior to this, he was the Country Manager with CSA Distribution Sdn Bhd, before it was acquired by Jardine OneSolution in 2000. Mr Lee was also with Canon Marketing (M) Sdn Bhd, in charge of direct and channel sales to develop and grow its inkjet business under the Computer Division.

Mr Lee said, “NEC is a leading technology company in the world, with many innovative solutions and applications for both public and private enterprises. With my experience and knowledge of the local IT industry, I am keen to promote and bring in NEC’s cutting-edge technologies to the local market. I look forward to work closely with the other NEC subsidiaries in the Asia Pacific region to grow the NEC brand and business together in Malaysia.”

Mr Takeuchi will be returning to NEC Corporation in Japan.
